What different ways do you know to study English?

I know many ways to study English. I can read short stories, watch English videos, listen to songs, and practice speaking with friends. I can also use apps, write a diary, and learn new words every day.

What are your study plans?

I am going to read English every day, learn new vocabulary, and practice speaking with my classmates. I am also going to watch short videos in English and review my notes each week.

Scenario: The Study Buddy Kick-Off
Three friends know they need to practice English more, so they decide to start a "Study Buddy Club." They will meet after school every Tuesday. At their first meeting, they want to share their goals, talk about their habits, and make a plan.
They need to:
Talk about what they want, like, and need to do in English.
Ask each other questions about their study habits (how often they do things).
Share different fun ways to study English and make personal study plans.

Explain the scene to the students.
