Team Project: Our Future Goals Club

Scenario: The Future Goals Club Meeting

Three friends are starting a "Future Goals Club" after school. They want to share their dreams and plans for the future. Alex is the club leader and will ask everyone questions. Sam is ready to share their big goals. Taylor wants to talk about what is really important in life.

They need to:

1.Ask and answer "Why are you going to..." questions about the future.

2.Share different kinds of goals: career, education, personal, and family.

3.Discuss what is most important in life and give reasons.

Roles:

- Alex: The club leader who asks the questions.
- Sam: A club member sharing their future plans.
- Taylor: A club member who talks about important things in life.

Alex: Welcome to the Future Goals Club! Sam, let's start. Why are you going to go to university?
Sam: I am going to go to university because I want to learn more and get a good job.
Alex: Why are you going to find a job?
Sam: I am going to find a job because I need money and I want to help my family.
Alex: Interesting! What is your career goal?
Sam: My career goal is to be a teacher. I am going to help students learn.
Alex: What is your educational goal?
Sam: My educational goal is to finish university. I am going to study hard and get good grades.
Alex: What about a personal goal?
Sam: My personal goal is to be healthy. I am going to eat well and do exercise.
Alex: And a family goal?
Sam: My family goal is to spend more time together. I am going to eat dinner with my family.
Taylor: Those are great goals, Sam. Can I share what is important to me?
Alex: Of course, Taylor.
Taylor: The most important thing for me is family. My family helps me and makes me feel safe.
Sam: What else is important?
Taylor: Friends are also important because I can talk and laugh with them. Education is important too, because I want a good future.
Alex: This was a great first club meeting. We all have great plans!
Sam & Taylor: Yes! Let's meet again next week.
