1. I'm good at paying attention to details. I'm interested in organizing information.

Maybe you should be an accountant. Which job would you most like to have? Why?

2. I would like to be a teacher because I enjoy helping people learn.

3. Which job would you like the least? Why?

I would not like to be a truck driver because I don't like driving long hours.

Ramona:	Excuse me. May I speak to the manager, please?
Employee:	She's not here right now. Can I help you?
Ramona:	Are you hiring?
Employee:	As a matter of fact, we are.
Ramona:	What positions are you hiring for?
Employee:	We need a manicurist and a receptionist.
Ramona:	Great. Can I have an application, please?
Employee:	Here you go. You can drop it off any time.
Ramona:	Thanks a lot.
Employee:	Sure. Good luck.

Scenario: The Future Job Explorers

It's Career Day at school! Three friends visit different booths to learn about jobs. Alex is curious about many jobs. Sam is working at the "Community Jobs" booth. Taylor is good at giving advice about what jobs might suit people.

They need to:

1.Ask and answer "Would you rather..." questions about job preferences.

2.Talk to someone at a booth to ask if they are hiring and for what positions.

3.Discuss what they are good at and what jobs they would like or not like.

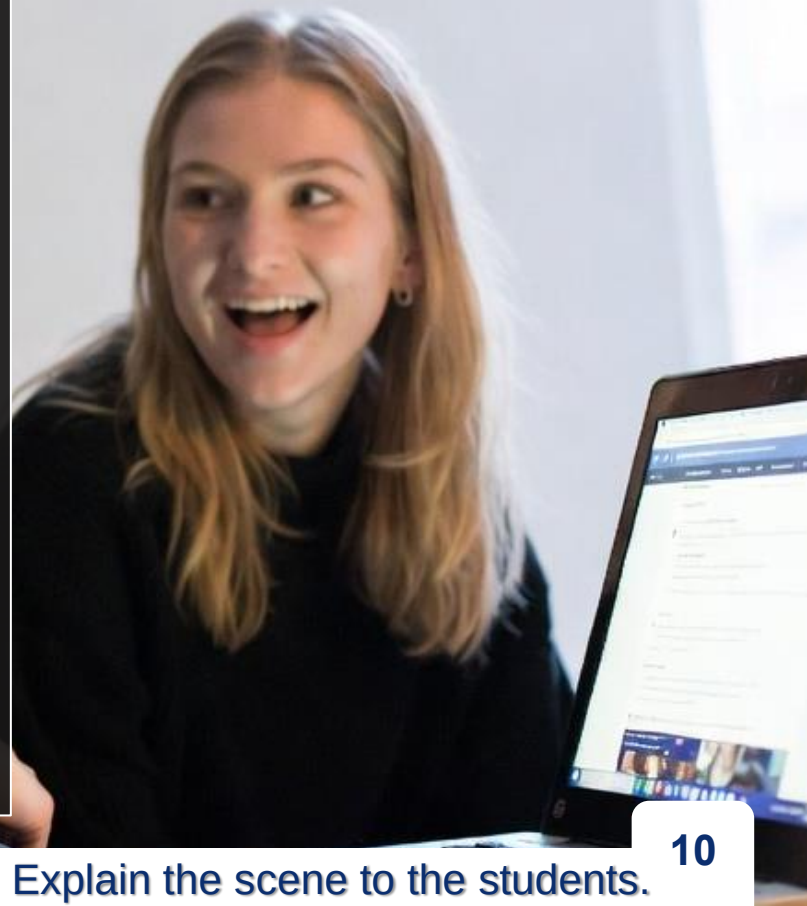

4.Ask about and describe what specific jobs are.

Roles:

- Alex: A student visiting the job fair booths.
- Sam: A person working at the "City Spa & Salon" booth.
- Taylor: A career advisor at the "What's Your Future?" booth.

Alex: Hi Taylor! I'm thinking about future jobs.
Taylor: Great! Let's start. Would you rather work alone or on a team?
Alex: I'd rather work on a team because I like sharing ideas.
Taylor: Would you rather work days or nights?
Alex: I'd rather work days.
Taylor: Good. What are you good at?
Alex: I'm good at paying attention to details. I'm interested in organizing information.
Taylor: Maybe you should be an accountant. Which job would you most like to have? Why?
Alex: I would like to be a teacher because I enjoy helping people learn.
Taylor: Which job would you like the least? Why?
Alex: I would not like to be a truck driver because I don't like driving long hours.
(Alex walks to the next booth)
Alex: Excuse me. May I speak to the manager, please?
Sam: She's not here right now. Can I help you?
Alex: Are you hiring?
Sam: As a matter of fact, we are.
Alex: What positions are you hiring for?
Sam: We need a manicurist and a receptionist.
Alex: Great. Can I have an application, please?
Sam: Here you go. You can drop it off any time.
Alex: Thanks a lot.
Taylor: So, what did you learn?
Alex: I learned about manicurist jobs! What does a graphic designer do?
Taylor: A graphic designer makes artwork for companies.
Alex: Cool. I want to learn how to take care of the elderly.
Taylor: Maybe you could volunteer at a hospital or nursing home.
Alex: This was helpful. Thank you!
