

StartUp 6
Vocabulary

Unit10 – Lesson3
Page118

Have the Ss answer the questions in class.

OSCAR BLANCO

@OscarB

Just watched a talk about lost and found items. I never realized how much stuff people leave on trains and buses!

1 BEFORE YOU LISTEN

A What kinds of things do you often lose?
What do other people often lose?

Have your Ss do the task for a couple of minutes. Then check the answers in class.

COMPLETE THE TEXT WITH INFORMATION FROM THE BOX.

belongings - on display - reunited – exhibition - random thrilled - mass - transit - recover - wandering

I've always wanted to visit Spain, and I finally got my wish last spring when I went to Madrid for the first time. It's a beautiful city, and the trip started out great. I'm an art-lover, and there was a huge __1__ at the Prado museum with some of my favorite paintings __2__ . Then, while I was __3__ around the city, I walked into a __4__ restaurant for lunch, and it turned out to be one of the best meals I've ever eaten. The __5__ system was clean and easy to use, and the weather was great. But the day before I had to leave, I discovered that I had lost one of my most precious __6__ -a necklace that had been my grandmother's. I was sure I would never __7__ it, and I got very upset. But amazingly, just as I was getting ready to leave my hotel, the desk clerk called me to say that someone had found a necklace in the lobby, and the clerk had recognized it as mine! I was so __8__ to be __9__ with my necklace. Next time I go to Madrid, I'm going to bring that clerk a gift.

OSCAR BLANCO

@OscarB

Just watched a talk about lost and found items. I never realized how much stuff people leave on trains and buses!

B 10-13 VOCABULARY Listen. Then listen and repeat.

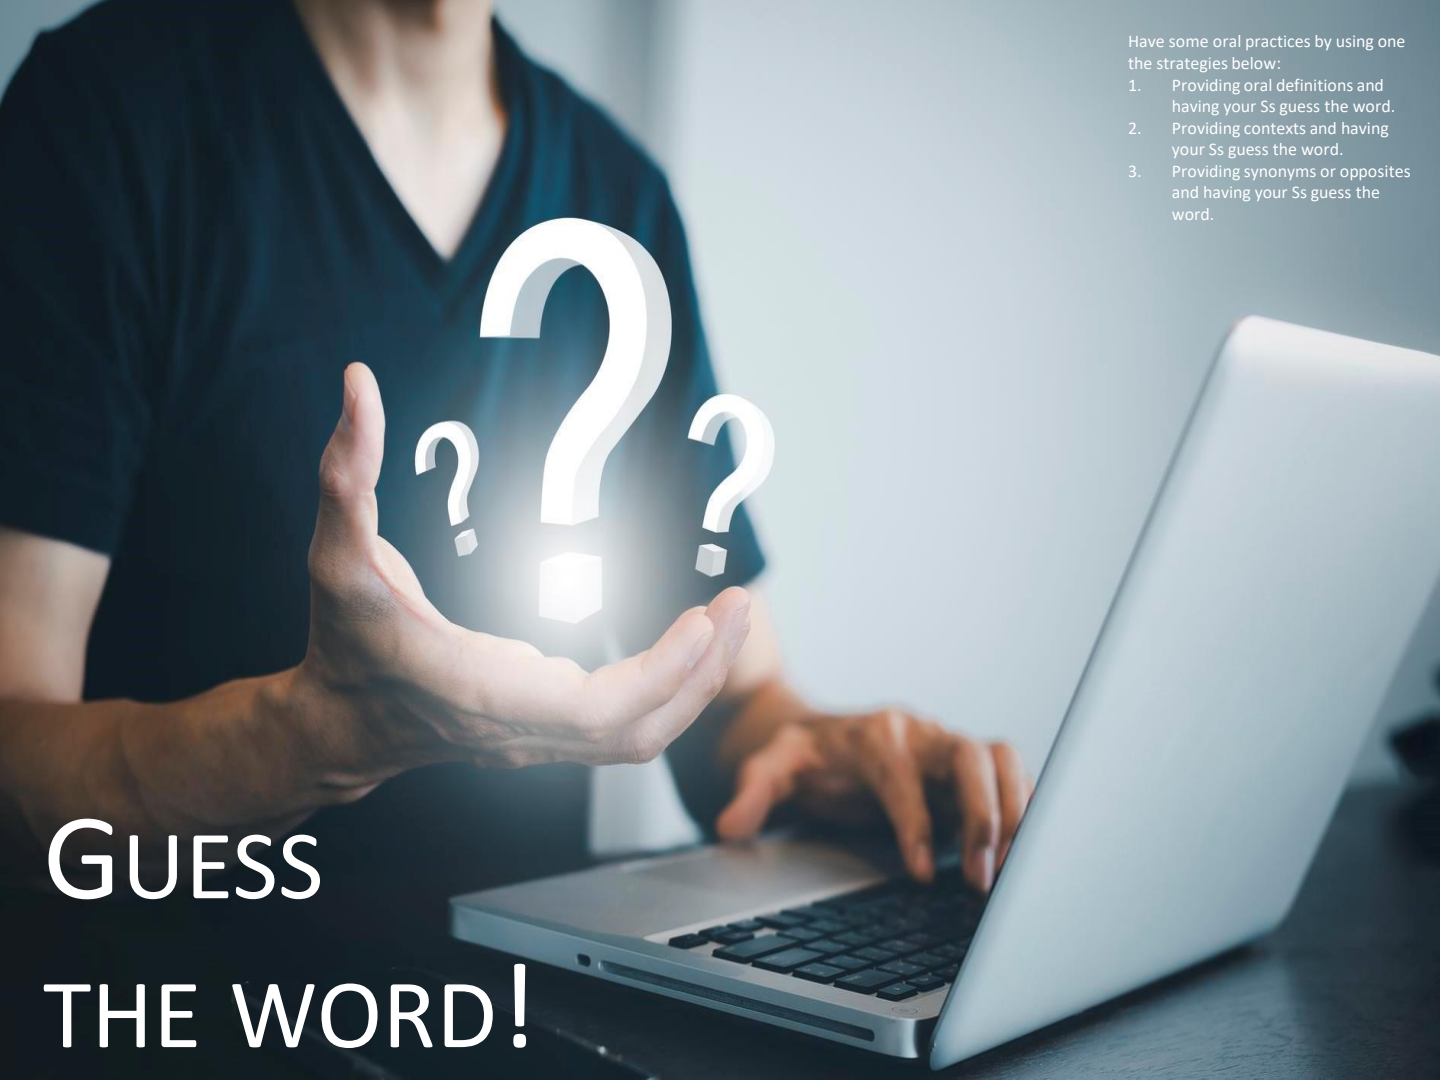

an exhibition: a public show of something such as art wander: to walk slowly around without having a clear idea of where you want to go random: chosen without any pattern
mass transit: a system of trains or buses that people use to travel around an area
on display: in a public place for people to see reunite: to bring people or things together after they have been separated belongings: things that you own, especially the ones that you carry with you thrilled: very excited, pleased, or happy
recover: to get back something that was lost or stolen

Have the Ss do the task in class. Nominate the Ss for their answers.

C Complete the sentences with words from 1B.

1. I was _____ to find my wallet after I thought I had lost it.
2. Millions of people ride _____ in this city.
3. We saw an interesting _____ of black-and-white photographs.
4. We're going to _____ around until we see someplace interesting to stop.
5. After six years of living in different countries, he was finally able to _____ with his brother.
6. We saw her paintings _____ at a café downtown.
7. He was hoping to _____ his bicycle after it was stolen, but he never did.
8. Make sure you have all of your _____ before you get off the train.
9. The art director picked _____ photos to put on the museum's website. No one knew which pictures she was going to choose.

an exhibition: a public show of something such as art
wander: to walk slowly around without having a clear idea of where you want to go random: chosen without any pattern
mass transit: a system of trains or buses that people use to travel around an area
on display: in a public place for people to see reunite: to bring people or things together after they have been separated belongings: things that you own, especially the ones that you carry with you
thrilled: very excited, pleased, or happy
recover: to get back something that was lost or stolen

Have some oral practices by using one the strategies below:

1. Providing oral definitions and having your Ss guess the word.
2. Providing contexts and having your Ss guess the word.
3. Providing synonyms or opposites and having your Ss guess the word.

GUESS THE WORD!