

araq

StartUp 7

Grammar

Unit8 – Lesson1

Page90

Ask all your students to choose the correct option orally or use the polling option. Make sure to ask the follow up questions.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

A. Modifying relative clauses add information to a noun or noun phrase.
B. Modifying relative clauses modify the whole sentence.

Follow-up Questions for Guided Discovery:

A. Which letter A/B matches the meaning of the sentence in the picture?
B. What is the relative clause of the sentence?

Present the correct sentence and explain the reason to the students.

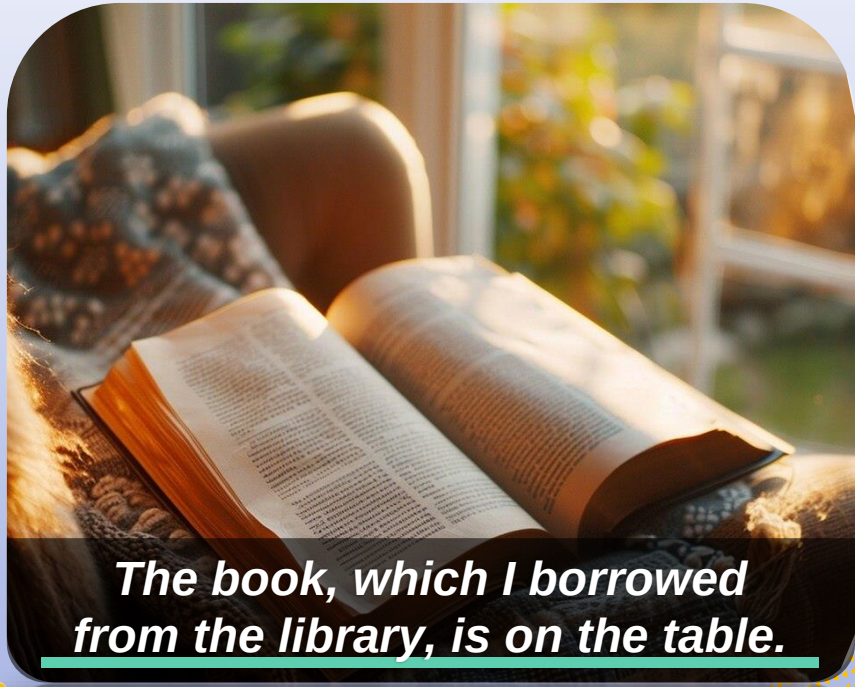

Modifying relative clauses add information to a noun or noun phrase.

She gave a presentation, which was very informative.

Ask all your students to choose the correct option orally or use the polling option. Make sure to ask the follow up questions.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

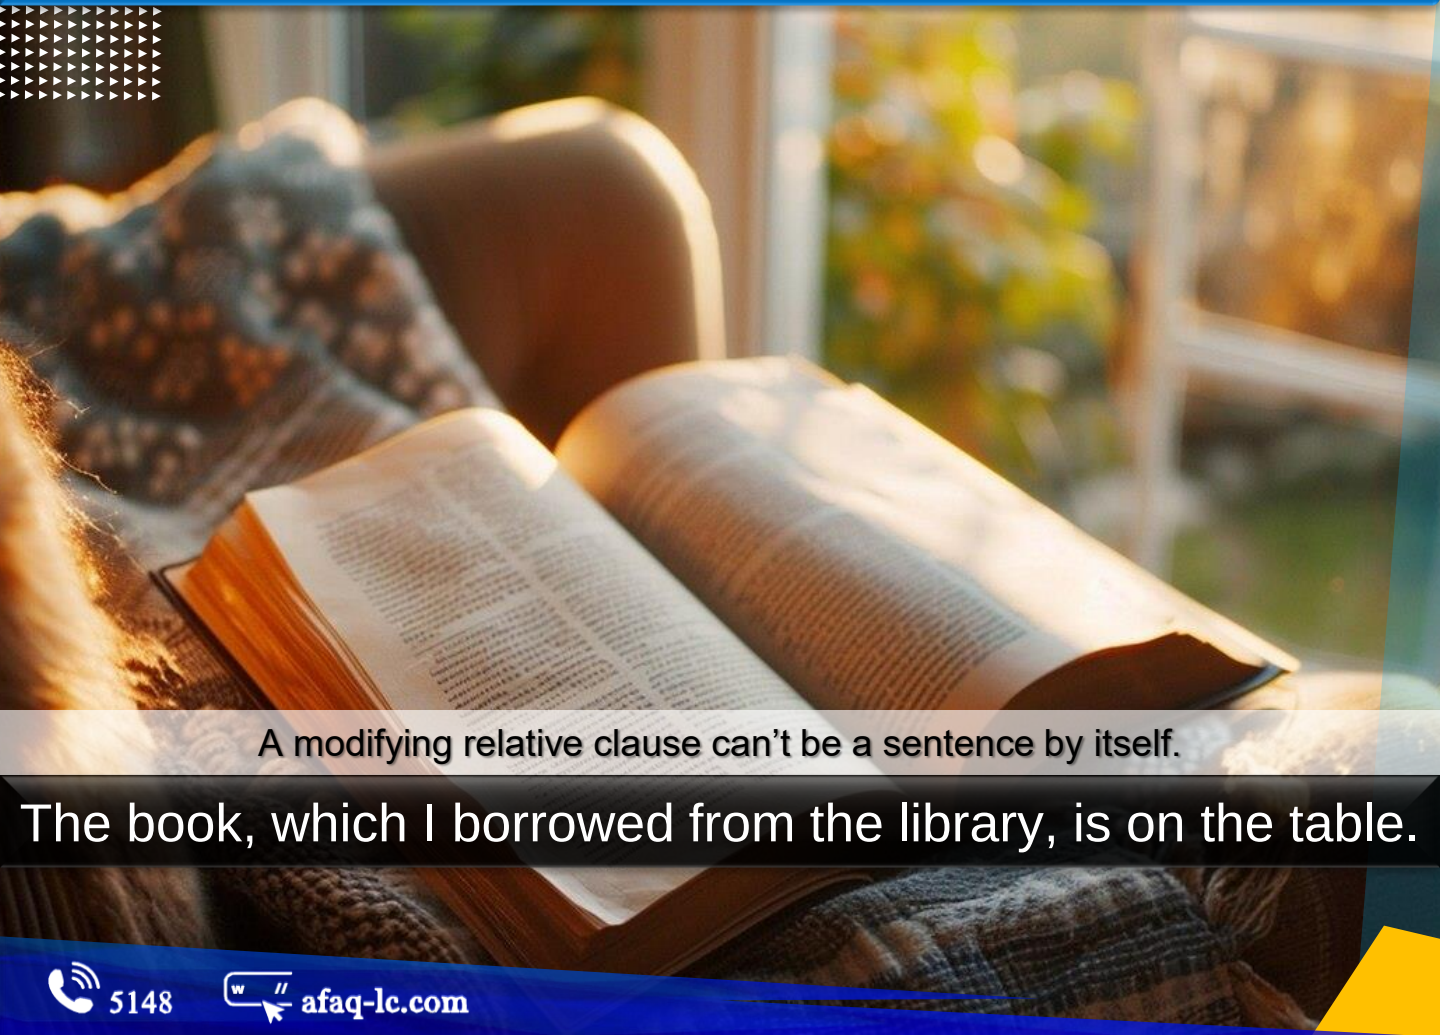

A. A modifying relative clause can't be a sentence by itself.
B. A modifying relative clause can be a sentence by itself.

Follow-up Questions for Guided Discovery:

A. Which letter A/B matches the meaning of the sentence in the picture?
B. What is the relative clause of the sentence?

Present the correct sentence and explain the reason to the students.

A modifying relative clause can’t be a sentence by itself.

The book, which I borrowed from the library, is on the table.

Ask all your students to choose the correct option orally or use the polling option. Make sure to ask the follow up questions.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

A. Some relative clauses follow this pattern: quantifier + with + relative pronoun.
B. Some relative clauses follow this pattern: quantifier + of + relative pronoun.

Follow-up Questions for Guided Discovery:

A. Which letter A/B matches the meaning of the sentence in the picture?
B. What is the relative clause of the sentence?

Present the correct sentence and explain the reason to the students.

Some relative clauses follow this pattern: quantifier + of + relative pronoun.

We interviewed 10 candidates, most of whom were highly qualified.

Ask all your students to choose the correct option orally or use the polling option. Make sure to ask the follow up questions.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

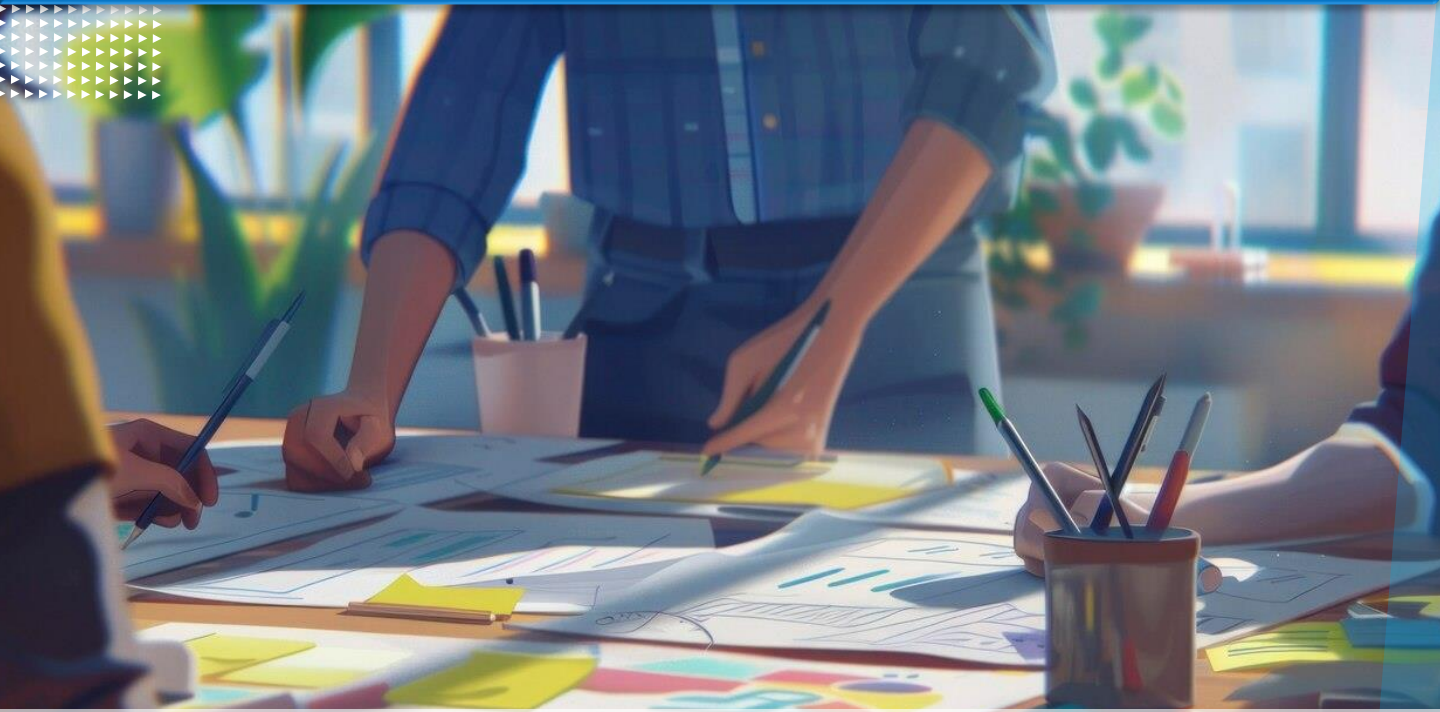

A. Some relative clauses begin with noun + preposition + relative pronoun.
B. Some relative clauses begin with noun + relative pronoun + preposition.

Follow-up Questions for Guided Discovery:

A. Which letter A/B matches the meaning of the sentence in the picture?
B. What is the relative clause of the sentence?

Present the correct sentence and explain the reason to the students.

Some relative clauses begin with noun + preposition + relative pronoun.

This is the project on which I've been working.

Ask all your students to choose the correct option orally or use the polling option. Make sure to ask the follow up questions.

CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

A. Clauses with a quantifier or noun + preposition must be separated by a comma.
B. Clauses with a quantifier or noun + preposition mustn't be separated by a comma.

Follow-up Questions for Guided Discovery:

A. Which letter A/B matches the meaning of the sentence in the picture?
B. What is the relative clause of the sentence?

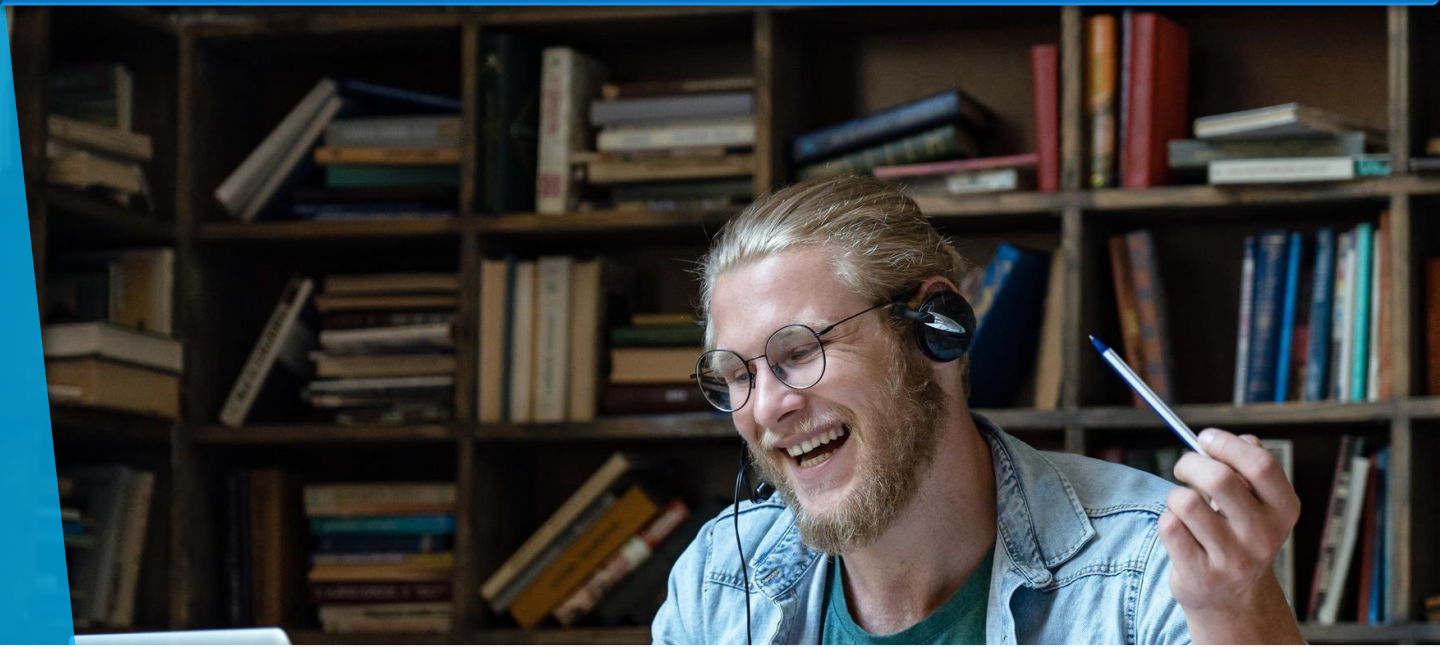

Present the correct sentence and explain the reason to the students.

Clauses with a quantifier or noun + preposition must be separated by a comma.

The team, many of whom were new, quickly adapted to the project.

Ask your students to repeat the sentences. And add any necessary tips.

Example sentences

1. We've had to do a lot of damage control, some of which has been effective.
2. Our marketing team pitched several ideas, only three or four of which we liked.
3. Let's translate this ad for our overseas clients, the majority of whom don't speak English.
4. We can learn a lot from that competitor, most of whose product launches have been successful.
5. We need help creating an ad campaign, a task in which we have little experience.
6. I'm pleased to announce our new sales director, a person for whom I have great respect.
7. Scott is leaving his job at Solutions, the company at which he has worked for ten years.

Ask your students to do the task in a minute

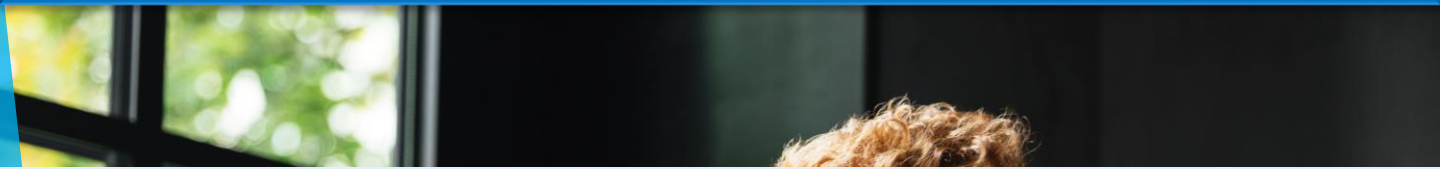

MODIFYING RELATIVE CLAUSES

A ▶08-03 Listen. Circle the correct word.

1. We got useful feedback from two / more than a dozen surveys.
2. One / Two project managers will present at the next meeting.
3. One / More than one company designed our logo, website, and promotional materials.
4. We haven't met the needs of many / any of our overseas clients.
5. Our marketing team is / Consumers are loyal to familiar brands.
6. Michael / I had never heard anything similar to those ideas.

5148 afaq-lc.com

B Combine the two sentences. Use the second one to make a modifying relative clause.

1. We're currently developing five new products. Only one of them is ready to launch.
   We're currently developing five new products, only one of which is ready to launch.
2. We have two new interns. Both of them are really talented.

   _____
3. I have to meet with several clients. A few of them are difficult.

   _____
4. I've reviewed the new promotional materials. All of them look great.

   _____
5. We're launching an ad campaign in Asia. It's a market we'd like to expand in.

   _____
6. They've spent many years developing their brand. It is a name that most people have respect for.

   _____

5148 afaq-lc.com

Freer practice

Complete the sentences with the correct modifying relative clauses.

Sentence 1: The restaurant was fully booked,	add a modifying relative clause
Sentence 2: I visited several cities in Europe,	add a clause with a quantifier like "many of," "most of," or "a few of"
Sentence 3: She finally submitted the report,	use a preposition like "in," "on," or "at" with a relative pronoun
Sentence 4: I spoke to the candidates,	add a modifying relative clause
Sentence 5: We attended a conference,	use a modifying relative clause with a preposition like "at" or "in."
Sentence 6: The company has launched new products,	use a quantifier like "some of" or "all of"

Ask your students to do the task and check their answers in class.

Have the students do the task in breakout rooms.

SpeakSpot!

Language Center

Ask and answer questions using relative clauses about the topics below.

Famous Inventions
Historical Events
Environmental Issues

Famous Books
Famous People

Can you tell me about the company that developed the first smartphone?

The company that developed the first smartphone was IBM.

