3 PRONUNCIATION

A 08-09 Listen. Read the pronunciation note.

Phrasal prepositional verbs

Phrasal prepositional verbs are expressions that consist of a verb followed by two prepositions, for example: get out of. Some expressions may have an object after the verb: help me out with. The first preposition is usually stressed, and the second one is unstressed. The verb can also be stressed. The words in these expressions are blended together:

I have to get out of class early today.

3 PRONUNCIATION

B 08-10 Listen. Notice stress and blending. Then listen and repeat.

A: Wow, Eva just got in on a great opportunity using her blog.

B: Yeah, Ana's new restaurant, right? It's just about to open and Eva's come up with a creative idea for promoting it.

A: Yeah. She has amazing social media ideas. I really look up to her.

Play the audio. Have your Ss listen do the task. Check the answers and have them repeat chorally and individually.

3 PRONUNCIATION

C ▶08-11 Listen. Complete the conversation. Mark the stressed preposition in the phrasal verb with a dot over the stressed vowel. Then check your answers with your partner.

A: Let's hurry and _____ Chang. He can give us a ride back.
B: Oh, Chang. I don't really _____ him. He always argues.
A: I know what you mean. Just _____ him for half an hour.

Ask your students to make sentences using the phrases. Check their pronunciation and give feedback.
