Unit9 – Lesson1

Page102

To the teacher

At the end of the lesson, your students must have achieved all the targets below. During the unit, plan your productive tasks to cover them.

DO YOU FOLLOW ANY SPORTS?

LEARNING GOALS

In this unit, you

- talk about athletic competition
- talk about esports
- talk about what a sport is
- read about sports fans
- write a set of instructions

Elicit some sentences from your students about the picture. Ask your students to talk about the questions.

LEARNING GOALS

In this unit, you

- talk about a solution to a problem
- talk about promotion strategies
- talk about corporate origin stories
- read about deceptive

GET STARTED

A Read the unit title and learning goals. Following a sport means watching it as well as keeping up with other news about it. Which sport interests you, either to watch or play? Why do you like it?

B Look at the picture. The photo appears to be open-water swimming and might be part of a triathlete competition, also involving running and cycling. Why might people do these activities?

C Read Tae-ho's message. Do people generally like to play the sport that they are fans of? Why or why not?

TAE-HO KANG

@Tae-hoK

I love to watch soccer, but I'm not very good at it. Anyone interested in a fantasy soccer league?

Have your Ss do the task for a couple of minutes. Then check the answers in class.

Match the words with the definitions.

athletic ability - hand-eye coordination – uncoordinated score a run - competitive spirit - play your heart out demolish an opponent - win fair and square

1. to overwhelmingly defeat someone you are playing against
2. to earn a point in baseball or softball by running around all of the bases
3. to exert maximum effort while playing a sport, game, or instrument
4. strength, coordination, speed of reflexes, and other qualities that are required for a person to do well in sports
5. to be successful in a competition without cheating
6. the way in which your hands and eyes work together to make you able to do things well
7. not good at physical activities, because of an inability to control their movement effectively
8. a drive to win and to do your best and succeed

Have the Ss look at the text and nominate them to answer the questions in class.

TAE-HO KANG

@Tae-hoK

I think there was an employee baseball game yesterday. Funny no one in the office is talking about it!

A Look at the class descriptions. Would you be interested in either of these classes? Why or why not?

New! Classes to boost your athletic abilities!

Our top trainer, Pau Pujol, is offering these short-term classes to help you improve your skills.

CLASS 1 Hand-Eye Coordination

Do you feel like you're too uncoordinated to play sports well? Have trouble hitting the ball with your bat or racket? This class will teach training exercises you can do to build those skills. You'll be winning points and scoring runs before you know it.

CLASS 2 Building Competitive Spirit

In order to win any game, you need to play your heart out and do your best to demolish your opponent (without cheating, of course—everyone wants to win fair and square!). But sometimes we have trouble tapping into our competitive potential. In this class you'll learn some critical psychological tricks to really help you get your game on.
