

StartUp 3
Listening

Unit3 – Lesson3
Page35

Have your Ss answer the lead-in questions using the "whole-class" interaction pattern.

afaq

HAVE YOU EVER GOTTEN LOST?

Explain.

Have your Ss look at the picture. Convey the meaning and try to elicit the word. Then practice the pronunciation chorally and individually.

Teach the form of the word. Then ask some concept checking questions.

TRAIL

Have your Ss look at the picture. Convey the meaning and try to elicit the word. Then practice the pronunciation chorally and individually.

Teach the form of the word. Then ask some concept checking questions.

SCAR

Have your Ss look at the picture. Convey the meaning and try to elicit the word. Then practice the pronunciation chorally and individually.

Teach the form of the word. Then ask some concept checking questions.

STUNNED

Have your Ss look at the picture. Convey the meaning and try to elicit the word. Then practice the pronunciation chorally and individually.

Teach the form of the word. Then ask some concept checking questions.

FRIGHTENED

Familiarize the students with the listening part. Play the audio once to do the task.

A 03-18 Listen to the podcast. Circle the correct answer.

Tony and Jack were both scared when they ___ .

a. got lost b. arrived in town c. saw the photo

Explain the skill to your Ss and give some examples. Familiarize the students with the listening part. Play the audio again to do the task.

B 03-18 Read the Listening Skill. Listen again. Complete the phrases with the descriptions you hear.

1. The town looked like a really _____ .
2. Tony is a very _____ guy.
3. The restaurant was decorated with lots of old _____ .
4. Tony sat _____ looking around the room.

LISTENING SKILL

Listen for descriptions

A good story includes descriptions, so it's important to know how to listen for them. Descriptions tell you how something looks, sounds, feels, tastes, or smells.

C 03-18 Listen again. Circle the correct answers.

1. Jin and Tony felt ___ when they saw the town.
   a. curious b. bored c. disappointed
2. Tony was ___ when they got to the town.
   a. angry b. upset c. happy
3. The restaurant was ___ .
   a. dark b. bright c. loud
4. The man in the photo had the same ___ as Tony.
   a. clothes b. scar c. eye color
5. Tony wanted to ___ .
   a. order food b. go home c. return to the restaurant
6. Jin wasn't able to sleep that night because he was so ___ .
   a. excited b. upset c. frightened

D PAIRS What do you think about the man in the photo? Who do you think he was?

Last weekend, something really strange happened. The weather was great, so my friend Tony and I decided to go for a hike in the mountains. But we got lost—can you believe it? We've been to the area lots of times, and as kids, we could always find our way around by using a map. But somehow, we forgot the map and I guess we walked off the trail. Anyway, after a couple of hours, we found this little town that we'd never seen before. It looked like a really interesting place and we were curious, so we stopped to look around.

Now, Tony is a very calm guy, and he doesn't get upset very often. But when we got to the center of town, he seemed a little upset. I could tell that something was wrong and it made me feel nervous. (I'm not a calm guy at all!) I asked him, "Are you OK?" and he said, "Yeah, I guess so. I just feel like I've been here before. It's strange." I laughed a little, but I could see he was serious. That made me feel even more nervous!

We were hungry, so we looked for a restaurant. After a few minutes, we were only able to find one—the only restaurant in the whole town! It was dark and quiet, and the walls were decorated with lots of old photos. The owner told us they were from hundreds of years ago. Tony sat quietly looking around the room until he saw something on the wall, right behind me. He seemed very surprised and a little scared so I turned to see what he was looking at. It was a picture of a man who looked exactly like him, except that he was wearing old-fashioned clothes. Now, this is what made me really scared. I couldn't believe it. Tony has a scar on his left cheek. The man in the photo had the same scar.

Tony couldn't stand at first so he just sat there looking stunned. Then, he stood up and ran out of the restaurant, fast. I, of course, followed him. I didn't want to be left behind in that creepy place! I couldn't catch up with him at first—I was getting angry about it, too. But finally, I found him at the beginning of the trail. He said, "Jack, let's go home. I don't want to spend another minute here!"

Tony didn't say a word all the way home. His face was white and he was shaking. He told me later that he wasn't able to speak because he was so upset. He felt as if it was his own ghost in the picture. I was kind of glad we left the restaurant before I could see mine! Even then, I wasn't able to sleep that night because I was so frightened.

READ THE SCRIPT AND UNDERLINE ANY NEW WORDS YOU DO NOT KNOW.

Last weekend, something really strange happened. The weather was great, so my friend Tony and I decided to go for a hike in the mountains. But we got lost—can you believe it? We've been to the area lots of times, and as kids, we could always find our way around by using a map. But somehow, we forgot the map and I guess we walked off the trail. Anyway, after a couple of hours, we found this little town that we'd never seen before. It looked like a really interesting place and we were curious, so we stopped to look around.

Now, Tony is a very calm guy, and he doesn't get upset very often. But when we got to the center of town, he seemed a little upset. I could tell that something was wrong and it made me feel nervous. (I'm not a calm guy at all!) I asked him, "Are you OK?" and he said, "Yeah, I guess so. I just feel like I've been here before. It's strange." I laughed a little, but I could see he was serious. That made me feel even more nervous!

We were hungry, so we looked for a restaurant. After a few minutes, we were only able to find one—the only restaurant in the whole town! It was dark and quiet, and the walls were decorated with lots of old photos. The owner told us they were from hundreds of years ago. Tony sat quietly looking around the room until he saw something on the wall, right behind me. He seemed very surprised and a little scared so I turned to see what he was looking at. It was a picture of a man who looked exactly like him, except that he was wearing old-fashioned clothes. Now, this is what made me really scared. I couldn't believe it. Tony has a scar on his left cheek. The man in the photo had the same scar.

Tony couldn't stand at first so he just sat there looking stunned. Then, he stood up and ran out of the restaurant, fast. I, of course, followed him. I didn't want to be left behind in that creepy place! I couldn't catch up with him at first—I was getting angry about it, too. But finally, I found him at the beginning of the trail. He said, "Jack, let's go home. I don't want to spend another minute here!"

Tony didn't say a word all the way home. His face was white and he was shaking. He told me later that he wasn't able to speak because he was so upset. He felt as if it was his own ghost in the picture. I was kind of glad we left the restaurant before I could see mine! Even then, I wasn't able to sleep that night because I was so frightened.

AS HOMEWORK USE A DICTIONARY TO LOOK UP THE WORDS AND LEARN THEM.