LISTEN TO YOUR TEACHER AND REPEAT THE SENTENCES.

A tag question is a question added to the end of a sentence. Use an auxiliary verb and the subject of the sentence in a tag question. Speakers sometimes use tag questions to confirm information. When the main verb of the sentence is affirmative, the tag question is negative.

Affirmative sentence	Negative tag
She's here for the interview,	isn't she?
I've given you a copy of my résumé,	haven't I?
They'll be here soon,	won't they?

I am becomes aren't I in a negative tag. I'm a little late today, aren't I?*

When the main verb of the sentence is negative, the tag question is affirmative.

Negative sentence	Affirmative tag
You didn't have any trouble,	did you?
The interviews haven't started yet,	have they?
We can't park here,	can we?

Notes

- When the questioner's statement is correct, we use yes to agree with an affirmative sentence and no to agree with a negative sentence. The verb in the answer agrees with the main verb in the sentence.
- When the questioner's statement is not correct, we use no to disagree with an affirmative sentence and yes to disagree with a negative sentence. The verb in the answer contradicts the main verb in the sentence.
