TO THE TEACHER

Teach your students the concept of "Stressed syllables in nouns".

Stressed syllables in nouns

It can be hard to predict the stressed syllable in a word, but there are some rules that can help. In most nouns with two syllables, we stress the first syllable: let•ter. In most nouns with three syllables, we stress the first or second syllable: ré•su•mé, de•part•ment. In nouns that end in -tion, we stress the syllable just before -tion: ap•pli•ca•tion.

Play the video once and focus on the concept you have already taught.

Watch the video and pay attention to the "Stressed syllables in nouns."
