WHAT ARE SOME GOOD COMMUNICATION SKILLS?

Have Ss read the task and answer the questions. Then elicit their answers in class.

Have Ss skim the text again and do the task. Then check the answers in class.

READ LIZ'S BLOG POST.

WHAT COMMUNICATION SKILL IS SHE WRITING ABOUT?

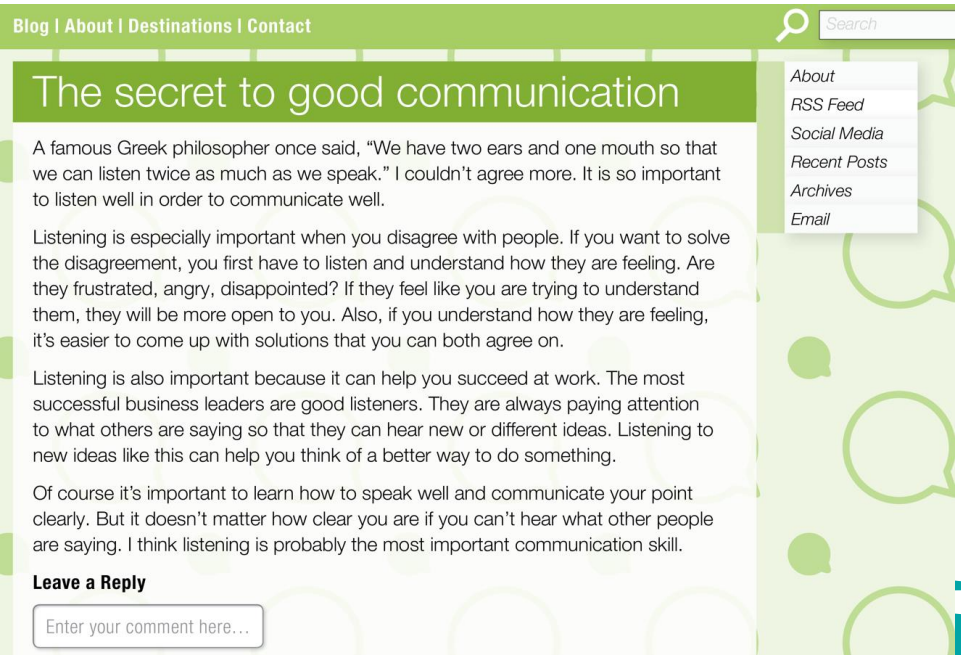

Teach the writing skill and have the Ss do the task in class.

2 FOCUS ON WRITING

Read the Writing Skill. Then reread Liz's post. Underline the two supporting arguments. Circle the reasons given for each one.

WRITING SKILL Develop an argument

When writing your opinion about a topic, provide supporting arguments. These arguments should include details which further explain and support your main idea. You can give reasons for your opinion, or you can provide specific examples that help to support your point.

3 PLAN YOUR WRITING

The Greek philosopher Plato said, "Wise men speak because they have something to say; fools speak because they have to say something." What do you think this means? Do you agree or disagree? Look at the model and type your sentences in the public chat.

A famous Greek philosopher once said, "We have two ears and one mouth so that we can listen twice as much as we speak." I couldn't agree more. It is so important to listen well in order to communicate well.

Teach the model to the Ss and ask them to personalize it in the public chat.

Listening is especially important when you disagree with people. If you want to solve the disagreement, you first have to listen and understand how they are feeling. Are they frustrated, angry, disappointed?

Teach the model to the Ss and ask them to personalize it in the public chat.

If they feel like you are trying to understand them, they will be more open to you. Also, if you understand how they are feeling, it's easier to come up with solutions that you can both agree on.

Teach the model to the Ss and ask them to personalize it in the public chat.

Of course it's important to learn how to speak well and communicate your point clearly. But it doesn't matter how clear you are if you can't hear what other people are saying. I think listening is probably the most important communication skill.

Teach the model to the Ss and ask them to personalize it in the public chat.
