Review for Churrasco

Cristina M. Mexico City ★★★★★

If you're a meat lover, you're going to love Churrasco. Churrasco is my favorite Brazilian steakhouse, where the meat is the star of the show, but there's also seafood and a great salad bar. It's an all-you-can-eat restaurant but Churrasco offers more than quantity. The quality of all the food is also very high and the service is superb. They come to your table with a selection of meat, and then your choice is cooked to order.

Churrasco is a great choice if you're dining out with a big group of friends because there are lots of options—beef, lamb, or chicken—and each piece is perfectly prepared—juicy and tender. I agree it's a little expensive. But for top-quality food, I think the price is fair. My advice is to skip lunch before you go so you're really hungry for dinner. Then you can really get your money's worth. I think I gain about two kilos every time I go!

Marco C. New York City ★☆☆☆☆

I cannot recommend this place. We expected a choice of different kinds of meat, but when the waiter finally arrived, he only offered us lamb. Then we had to wait 40 minutes to get steaks. Much too salty and almost raw, they were definitely not worth the wait. I'd heard that their salad bar is very good, but again, there were hardly any choices—just a lot of different kinds of lettuce and a few tomatoes. And guess what? Dessert is not included in the price. It's a separate menu, at an additional price. Finally, I expected a quiet, intimate atmosphere, but there were kids running around the tables, and the music was much too loud.

Joan F. San Francisco ★★★☆☆

I tried Churrasco for the first time last week when my friends and I went there for my birthday. I have to say that I was a bit disappointed with the food. I thought the steaks were rather tough; on the other hand, I loved the garlic mashed potatoes and the bread, which they bake fresh every morning. At the end of the meal, the waiters brought me a big slice of chocolate cake and they all sang, "Happy Birthday" to me. They were very sweet.

Have Ss identify the correct answer. Go over the answer as a class.

B Read the statements made by the three reviewers. Who do you think made each statement? Write C for Cristina, M for Marco, or J for Joan.

1. "I'll never go back." –
2. "I always eat too much when I go there." –
3. "The additional cost of dessert makes the restaurant quite expensive." ___
4. "I think the service was better than the food." ___
5. "In the end, we all had a good time at Churrasco." ___
6. "There are so many choices." ___

Have Ss identify the correct meaning. Go over the answer as a class.

C FOCUS ON LANGUAGE Reread lines 2–4 and 10–11 in the reviews. Think about the phrases star of the show and get your money's worth. Circle the correct answers.

1. The expression star of the show means ___.
   a. very high quality b. the best thing c. the most expensive thing
2. The expression get your money's worth means ___.
   a. get as much as possible for what you paid
   b. receive something very expensive
   c. not pay too much for something

D Read the Reading Skill. Write each phrase in the correct place in the chart.

too salty	lots of options	helpful waiters
perfectly prepared	hardly any choices	too loud
steaks were tough	a great salad bar

	Positive	Negative
Cristina	lots of options
