Dear Lois,

I'm really excited that you're coming back to visit, and I have a fun weekend planned!

On Friday night, we have a couple of choices. If you'd prefer to do something outside, there's a concert / a carnival / a parade (1.) with a giant Ferris wheel and games where we can win prizes. Or, if you'd rather do something inside, our old high school is having a magic show / a baking contest / a race (2.). I heard that one student is going to do a trick where he changes his friend into a cat!

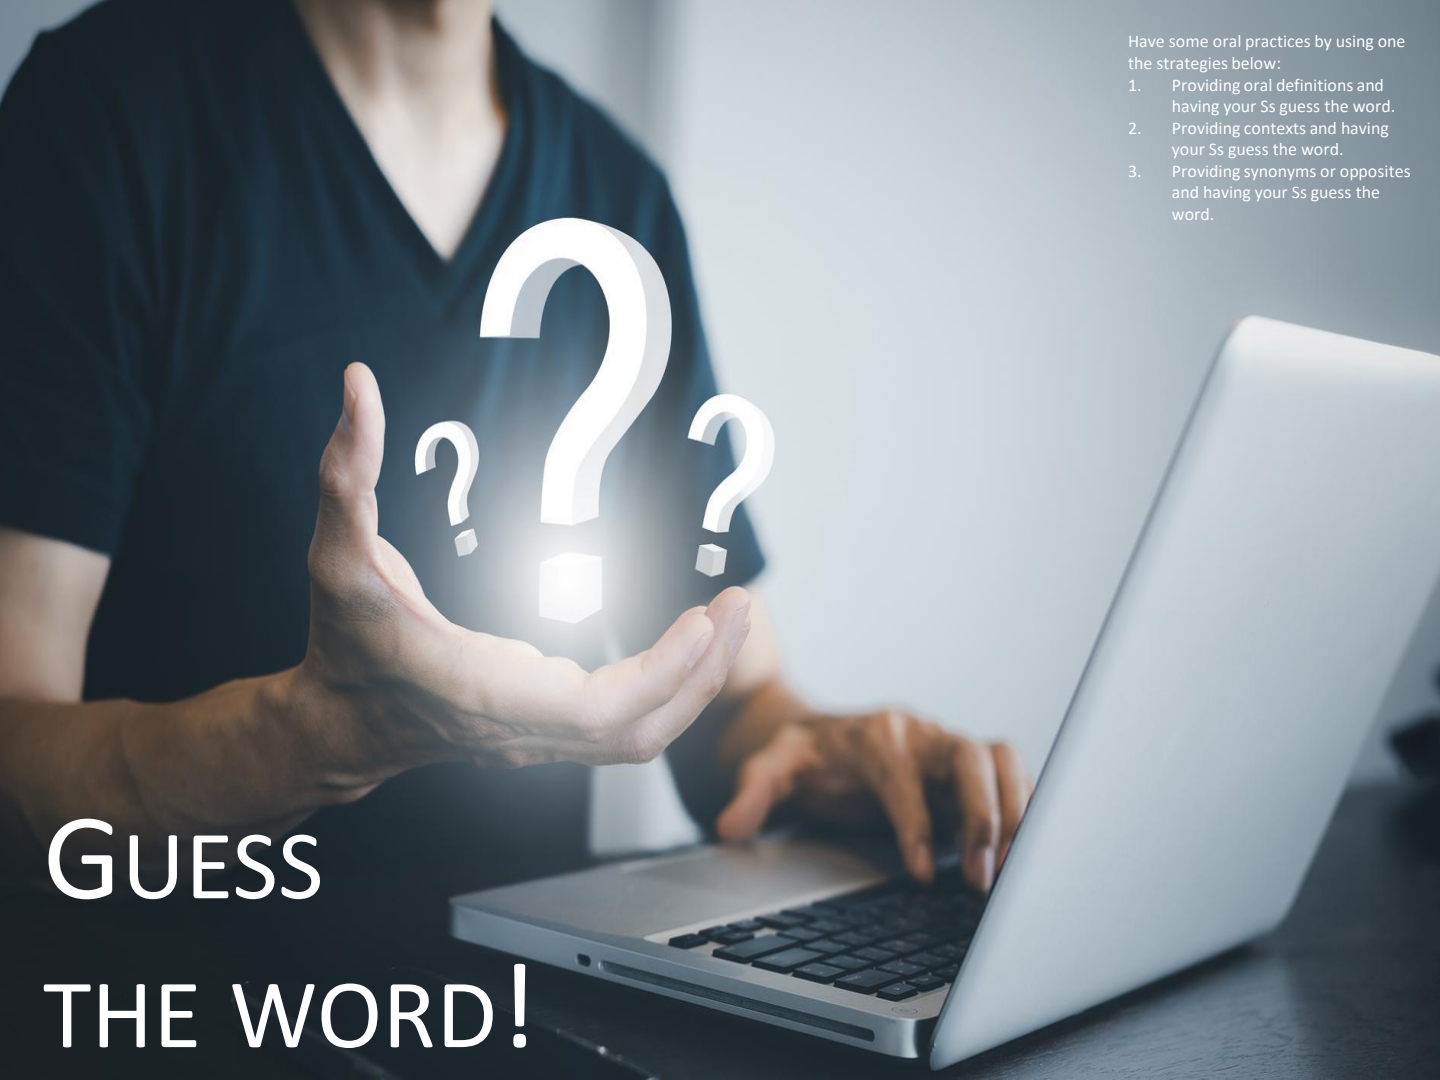

Saturday we'll go to River Oaks Park. Do you remember the puppet show / food fair / concert (3.) we saw here when we were kids? One little boy kept trying to go behind the stage to see who was making the animals talk and move. And isn't that the park where you ran in that art exhibit / carnival / race (4.)? Anyway, this weekend they're having an international festival. The first event is a parade / fireworks / a baking contest (5.), where people walk down the street wearing traditional clothes from their countries. They also have a baking contest / fireworks / an art exhibit (6.) where you might find a new painting for your collection. The part I'm looking forward to most is the a carnival / food fair / magic show (7.). Last year, I ate bibimbap from Korea, arepas from Venezuela, and injera from Ethiopia. For dessert, let's try cakes and cookies from their baking contest / parade / art exhibit (8.)!

That night, musicians from all over the world will play together in a race / an art exhibit / a concert (9.). At the very end of it, colorful magic shows / fireworks / carnivals (10.) will light up the sky.

I can't wait to see you!

Monica
