AROUND TOWN

Looking for something to do this weekend? Here are some ideas:

_____

- Check out the Johnson History Museum's new dinosaurs. Children will be fascinated by the new full-size T. Rex skeleton. There are also recordings of what scientists think some dinosaurs sounded like. It'll be music to your ears!
- The Modern Gallery has some amazing nature photographs on display. "Hiding in Plain Sight: Animal Camouflage" shows you insects that look like leaves, frogs that look like rocks, owls that look like part of a tree. See how animals use their environment to hide from dangerous predators.

_____

- Summer is here, and so is the Longman Park Concert Series. First up on Friday night is the popular local band, The Giant Cats. Sit under the stars, sing along to your favorite songs, and if you get hungry during the show, stop by the food trucks to get something delicious to eat.
- At the Laugh Factory, see Bobby Felder, the star of TV's Bobby's House. His stand-up comedy is hilarious and will have you laughing from start to finish.

- The Farmer's Market opens on Saturday. You can stock up on fresh fruits and vegetables and try delicious baked items.
- Do you watch the TV show Kitchen Wars? If so, you'll want to come to the Foodie Festival at Center Park on Sunday from 12:00 to 3:00, when all the contestants will be cooking up their amazing dishes.
- The International Food Fair will take place in the Chen Auditorium at State College. Try foods from around the world and watch interesting cooking demonstrations so you can make the dishes at home!

Have Ss scan the text again and do the task. Then check the answers in class.

2 FOCUS ON WRITING

Read the Writing Skill. Circle the categories in the event guide. Then underline the words in each section that are related to the category.

WRITING SKILL Categorize

When you categorize, you put similar things or ideas into groups. Using subheadings is a good way to make your categories obvious and help a reader understand a long list of information.
