LOOK AT THE TEXT AND ANSWER THE QUESTIONS.

Sarah: Hi Mark! Can you tell me, how was your weekend?
Mark: Oh, it was great! I went hiking with some friends. We explored a new trail in the mountains. Do you know where we went?
Sarah: That sounds fun! I've never been hiking. Can you tell me where you went?

1. How does Mark ask about the place he went hiking?
2. How does Sarah ask about the location of Mark's hiking trip

Present the sentences and ask for the Ss' opinions to answer the questions.

RULES:

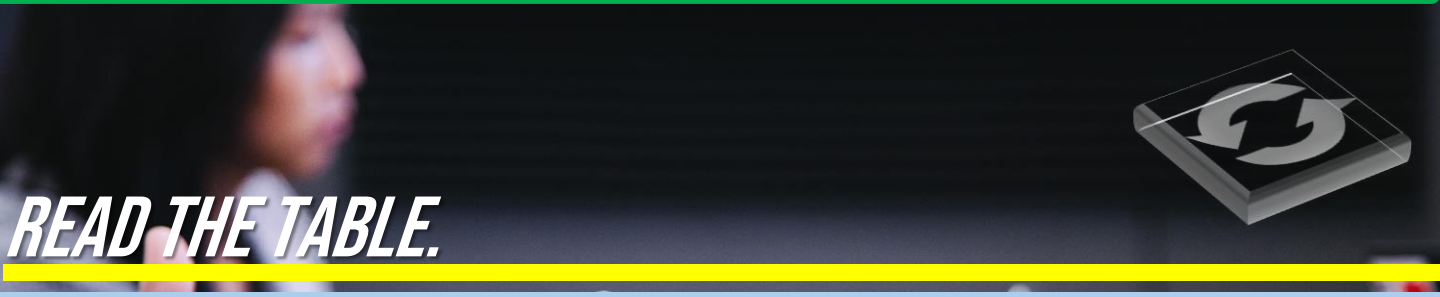

Embedded wh- questions usually come after verbs like know, remember, see, and tell. You can embed a wh- question in a question or statement. The embedded wh- question begins with a question word, but it has statement word order.

Do you know what time it is?

We also use question words with infinitive phrases—usually when we're trying to be polite.

Could you tell me where to go?

Have your Ss read the sentences aloud. Recap any tips if necessary.
