TRUE CRIME STORIES

MONA LISA THEFT

On August 21, 1911, an art thief walked into the Louvre Museum in Paris and stole the Mona Lisa. At first no one noticed the theft. The man just cut the famous painting out of its frame and walked out with it under his clothing. It took the French police more than two years to find the thief and the painting.

THE GREAT TRAIN ROBBERY

In 1963, a gang of 15 robbers got away with over $4 million when they carried out a complicated train robbery in the UK. Working together, they stole 120 bags of money off the train in 15 minutes.

JOHN PAUL GETTY III KIDNAPPING

Seventeen-year-old John Paul Getty III was the grandson of the richest man in the world when he was kidnapped in Rome in 1973. His father refused to pay at first, but eventually he gave the kidnappers $2.9 million and the teenager was returned.

JACK THE RIPPER MURDERS

Jack the Ripper is the name given to a murderer who killed five women in London in 1888. Police never caught him, and some people think he committed six other murders around the same time. Today thousands of tourists visit the scenes of his crimes.

Teach the challenging words to your Ss. Then play the audio to practice the pronunciation.
