

StartUp 5

Vocabulary

Unit10 – Lesson3

Page118

Have your Ss do the task for a couple of minutes. Then check the answers in class.

Fill in the blanks.

escape comforting respectful to being unreasonably reacting with surprise.

emotional sympathy for demanding

1. It is important to be _____ others, even if their opinions differ from your own.
2. The prisoner managed to _____ from the jail during the chaos.
3. Shouting and yelling without listening to the other person's perspective is an example of _____ behavior.
4. When a friend is going through a tough time, offering a _____ presence can provide great solace.
5. Expressing _____ for someone who is going through a difficult situation is a sign of empathy.
6. The toddler is _____ attention and wants someone to play with him right now.
7. When she heard the news, her eyes widened, and she couldn't help _____.
8. Watching a sad movie can evoke strong _____ reactions in some people.

Teach the challenging words to your Ss. Then play the audio to practice the pronunciation.

ED MILLER

@EdM

I saw a talk about dealing with difficult people. It had some good advice. Maybe I should take a walk in the park.

A 10-14 VOCABULARY Listen. Then listen and repeat.

He wants to escape.

They are reacting with surprise.

She is respectful to her grandmother.

The nurse has sympathy for the patient.

The bear is comforting to the child.

She is demanding her food right now.

The child is being unreasonable.

He is too emotional. He needs to calm down.

Have the Ss do the task in a couple of minutes. Then check the answers in class.

B Read the definitions. Write the words from 1A.

1. _____ : a sad feeling for someone when something bad is happening to him or her
2. _____ : behaving in a polite way
3. _____ : showing strong feelings
4. _____ : to get away from a place or person
5. _____ : making someone feel less worried or unhappy
6. _____ : acting in a particular way because something has happened
7. _____ : not willing to listen to facts or follow good advice
8. _____ : asking for something in a strong way

He wants to escape.

They are reacting with surprise.

She is respectful to her grandmother.

The nurse has sympathy for the patient.

The bear is comforting to the child.

She is demanding her food right now.

The child is being unreasonable.

He is too emotional. He needs to calm down.

Complete the conversations with words from the box.

comforting	emotional	reacting	sympathy
demanding	escape	respectful	unreasonable

1. A: Why are you talking so quietly?
   B: I want to be _____ of the other people at the library.
2. A: Why are you sending her flowers?
   B: She just got some bad news, and I want to express my _____.
3. A: How are things going with your new boss?
   B: He's much more _____ than the last one. He expects us to stay late and work on the weekends.
4. A: Why have you been calling your sister so often?
   B: I'm worried about a lot of things right now, and it's always _____ to talk to her.
5. A: Why are you crying?
   B: I always get _____ when I watch sad movies.
6. A: What is that bird doing?
   B: It's trying to _____ from its cage.
7. A: How are things going with your staff members?
   B: Pretty good. They are _____ well to all the changes.
8. A: Why did he spend so much money on that car?
   B: I don't know. It's definitely not worth that much, so his decision seems _____.

Activity

Have some oral practices by using one the strategies below:

1. Providing oral definitions and having your Ss guess the word.
2. Providing contexts and having your Ss guess the word.
3. Providing synonyms or opposites and having your Ss guess the word.

GUESS THE WORD!

Have the Ss do the task in their breakout rooms.

C PAIRS Use the words in 1A to write sentences about your own life. Then share your sentences.

A: My cat escaped from the house the other day.
B: Sometimes I want to escape from work!

