

StartUp 5

Vocabulary

Unit8 – Lesson3

Page94

Have the Ss read the chart and share their opinions in class.

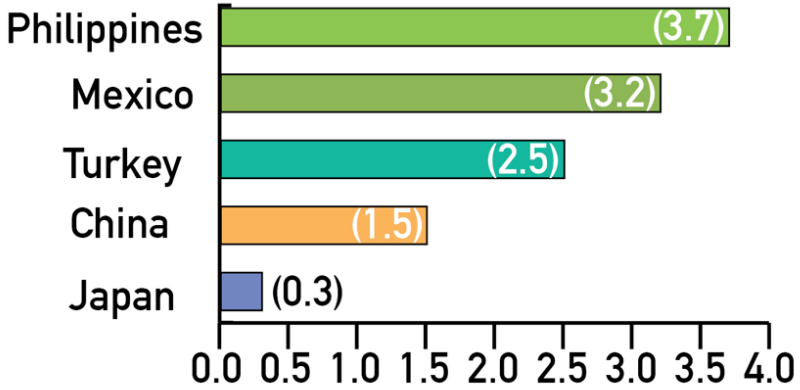

PAULA FLOREZ

@PaulaF

Did you know most people have about 15 close friends?

1 BEFORE YOU LISTEN

A Look at the chart. How does your time on social media sites compare to the averages in these countries?

Hours Spent on Social Media Every Day

Have your Ss do the task for a couple of minutes. Then check the answers in class.

Fill in the blanks.

offend	stay in touch	an anthropologist	consider	lose touch	cut off	face-to-face

1. People often _____ with old friends when they get busy, but it's good to reconnect and not _____.
2. Even if you move away, it's important to _____ with friends and family so you don't _____ from each other.
3. In a disagreement, it's better to talk _____ and try to understand each other rather than _____ communication completely.
4. It's not nice to _____ others with hurtful words; instead, try to be kind and understanding.
5. An individual who studies different cultures is called _____, and it's important to be _____ of diverse customs.
6. When you have to make a decision, it's crucial to _____ all the options before choosing the best one.

Teach the challenging words to your Ss. Then play the audio to practice the pronunciation.

08-13 VOCABULARY Listen. Then listen and repeat. Do you know these words?

offend: to make someone angry or upset
stay in touch: to continue to communicate with someone who does not live near you
an anthropologist: someone who studies people consider: to have an opinion about something
lose touch: to not stay in touch
cut off: to end a connection with someone or something
face-to-face: in person, not over the phone or internet

PAULA FLOREZ
@PaulaF
Did you know most people have about 15 close friends?

Have the Ss listen to the audio and do the task. Then check the answers in class.

C 08-14 Listen to the story. Then complete the sentences. Use words in 1B in your answers. Use correct verb tenses.

1. Carlos is a(n) _____
2. When Teruko moved back to Japan, she and Carlos _____ .
3. When Teruko didn't send him a birthday message, Carlos was _____ .
4. This year, they have _____
5. Carlos _____. Teruko to be a wonderful person and
6. Next year, they plan to meet _____ friend. _____ .

offend: to make someone angry or upset

stay in touch: to continue to communicate with someone who does not live near you

an anthropologist: someone who studies people

consider: to have an opinion about something

lose touch: to not stay in touch

cut off: to end a connection with someone or something

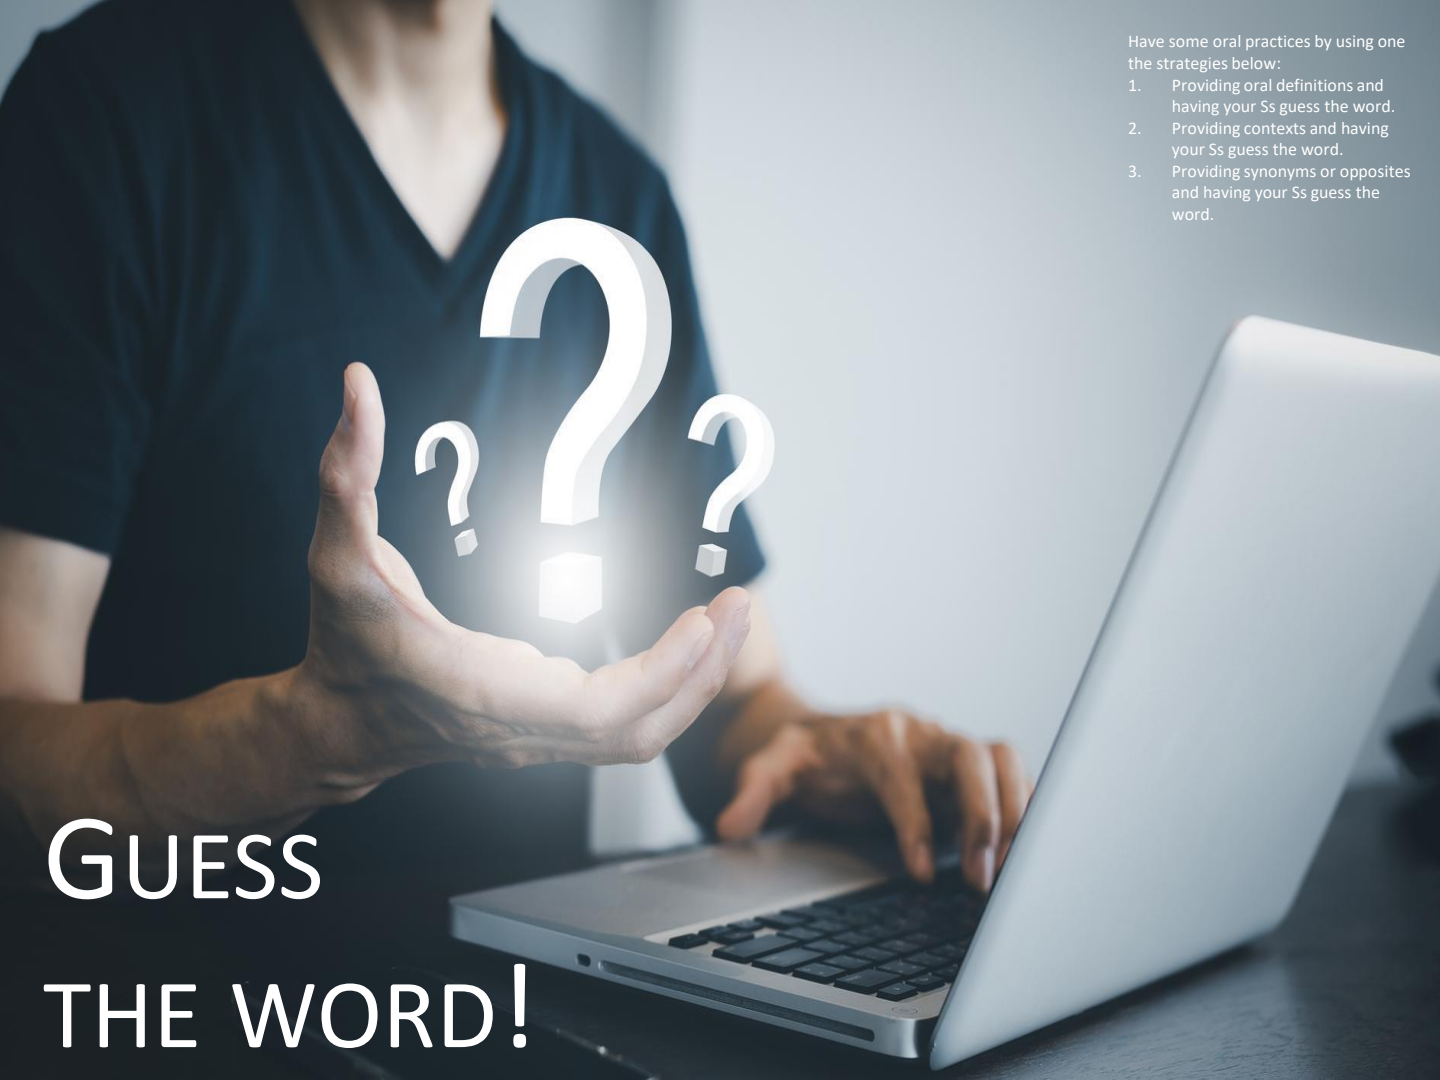

face-to-face: in person, not over the phone or internet

Complete the sentences with information from the box.

anthropologist	cut off	lose touch	stay in touch
consider	face-to-face	offend

1. I enjoy texting my friends, but I prefer _____ communication.
2. Charlotte was afraid that she would _____ with some of her friends if she quit social media.
3. The _____ studied the marriage customs of people in Japan.
4. Alan and Martin _____ communication with each other after their business closed.
5. Even though you're moving to a different country, I'm sure we'll _____.
6. Derek said he was sorry and that he wasn't trying to _____ anyone.
7. Kelly and Miyuki have been friends for so long that they _____ each other family.

Activity

Have some oral practices by using one the strategies below:

1. Providing oral definitions and having your Ss guess the word.
2. Providing contexts and having your Ss guess the word.
3. Providing synonyms or opposites and having your Ss guess the word.

GUESS THE WORD!