CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION.

In a small town, there is a cozy cafe where people often gather to enjoy a cup of coffee and chat. The customers don't have to/haven't to rush; they can take their time sipping their drinks. The regulars know that they had better not leave/ had better not to leave their belongings unattended. Additionally, there is a sign on the door reminding customers that they are supposed to/ supposed to use headphones when listening to music to maintain a peaceful environment for everyone.

Have the Ss do the task for a couple of minutes. Then show the next slide to check the answers.

Complete the rule of the structure.
Use "(Not) have to / Had ___ (not) / Be (not) ___ to" to talk about advice, obligation, and expectation.

Have a student read the text aloud and then ask the class to fill in the blank.

Have your Ss read the sentences aloud. Recap any tips if necessary.

READ THE TABLE.

	(Not) have to / Had better (not) / Be (not) supposed to	Base form of the verb
Everyone	has to	come	to the meeting.	(It's required.)
You	don't have to	accept	that offer.	(You can walk away.)
I	had better	leave	now.	(I'm going to be late.)
You	had better not	be	late.	(The boss will be angry.)
I	am supposed to	call	them.	(They're expecting my call.)
We	aren't supposed to	use	our phones.	(It's against the rules.)

Notes

- Had better (not) often carries a suggestion of bad consequences.
- Use have to to say that an action is necessary / required.
- Use (not) have to to say that an action is not necessary.
- Use had better (not) to give strong advice or to talk about things people should or shouldn't do.
- Use be (not) supposed to to express expectations.

Oral Practice

Practice different forms of grammar by providing the context to Ss and having them produce sentences individually.

Ask your students to do the task in a couple of minutes.

C MAKE IT PERSONAL Complete the sentences with your advice.

1. When you need new furniture, you don't always have to buy it from a furniture store.
2. If you want to get a good price on a car, you have to _____.
3. Before you sign any contract, you're supposed to _____.
4. During price negotiations, you're not supposed to _____.
5. If you're planning to buy a house, you'd better _____.

Create breakout rooms to have the Ss share their ideas. Give FEEDBACK right after.

IN PAIRS!

Share what you have written and add more details.
